LITTLE ELM HIGH SCHOOL

THE LOBO: HIS IMAGE

Little Elmo: Teacher, what is a Lobo?

Teacher: Technically, he is a timber wolf. The Lobo is a native of this part of the country. He has a vicious nature because he has had to protect himself against many enemies. He has learned to cope with his environment, but sometimes, it still is hard just to survive.

L.E.: Dad, what do you think a Lobo is?

Dad: Well, Son, a Lobo has many admirable qualities. Among these are survivial tactics, tenacity, independence, and courage.

L.E.: Mom, could you define a Lobo for me?

Mom: I don't know, Son. Maybe. He is pretty? No . . . Ambitious? Not exactly. Proud? Definitely. Vicious? Certainly. He has to protect himself against enemies. Ask your big brother. He's a Lobo.

Brother: A Lobo, Elmo, is many things. He is honest. He works hard. He does not expect special privileges that he does not earn. He is helpful to his friends. He has many faces. Look, Elmo, here is my annual. You will find the image of the Lobo on every page in this book. All I can say is, "I'm proud to be a Lobo!"

L.E.: Well, for sure, that's what I want to be when I grow up!"

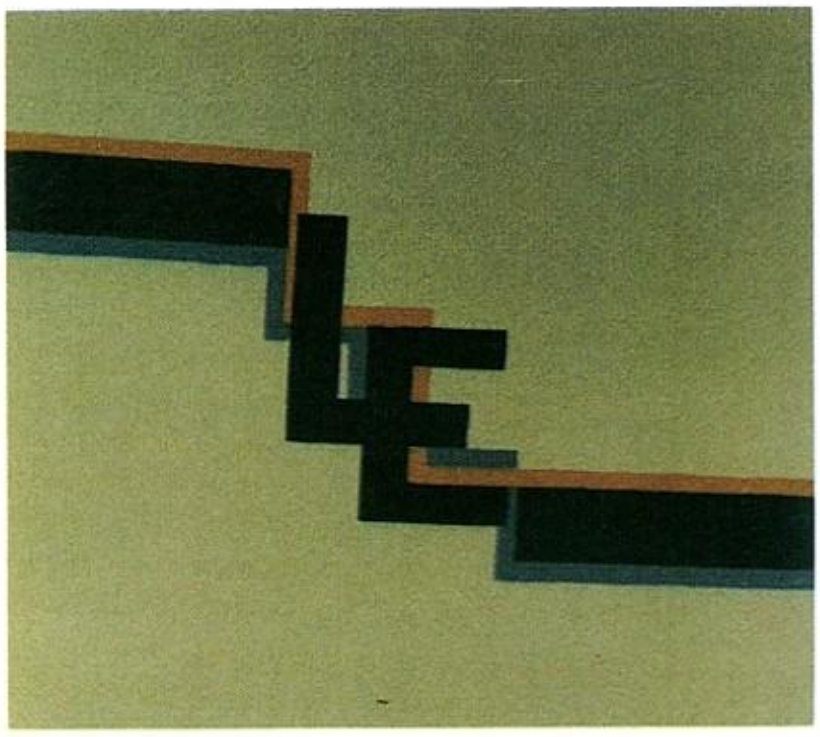
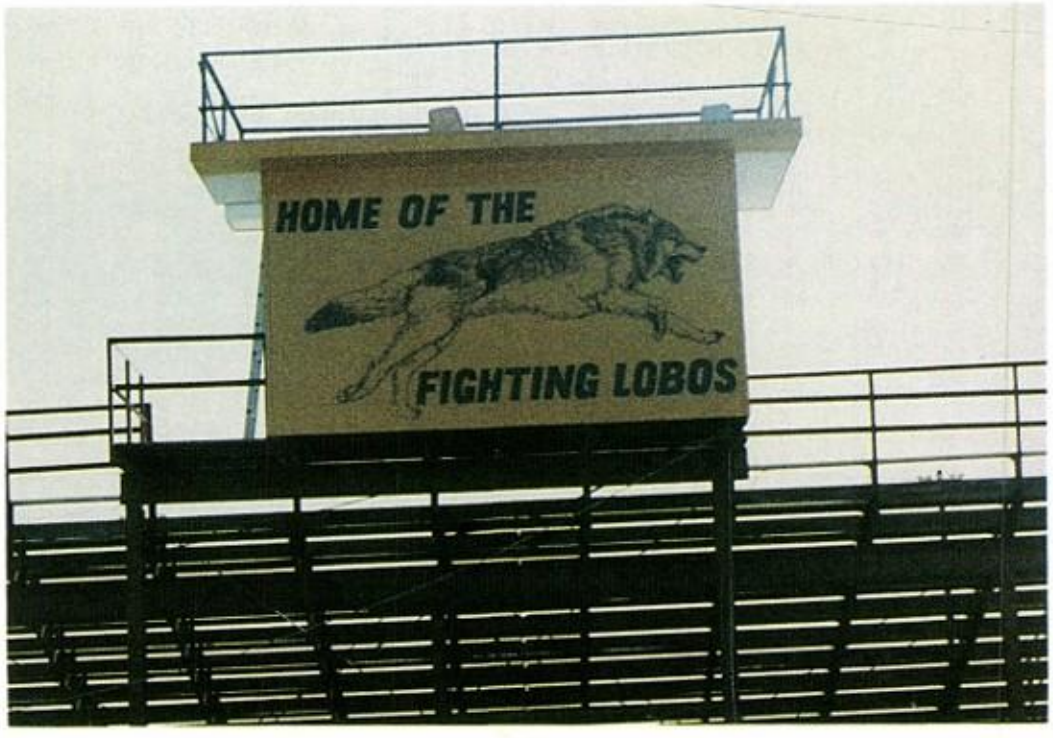
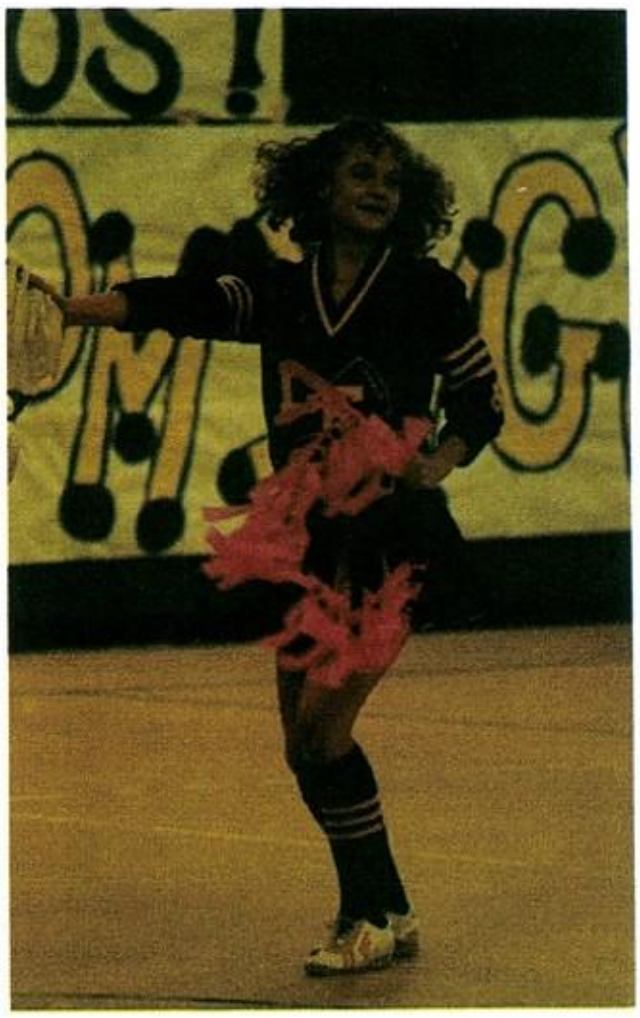
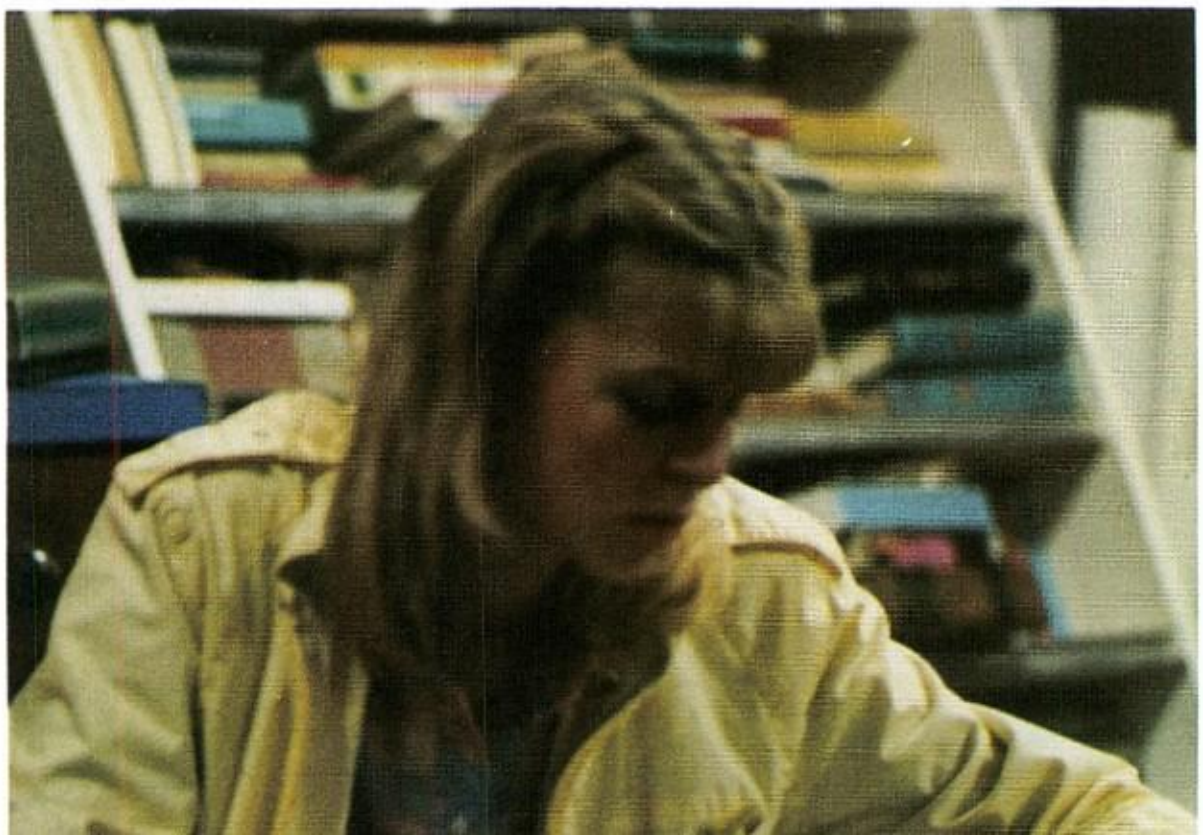
LOBOS IN COLOR

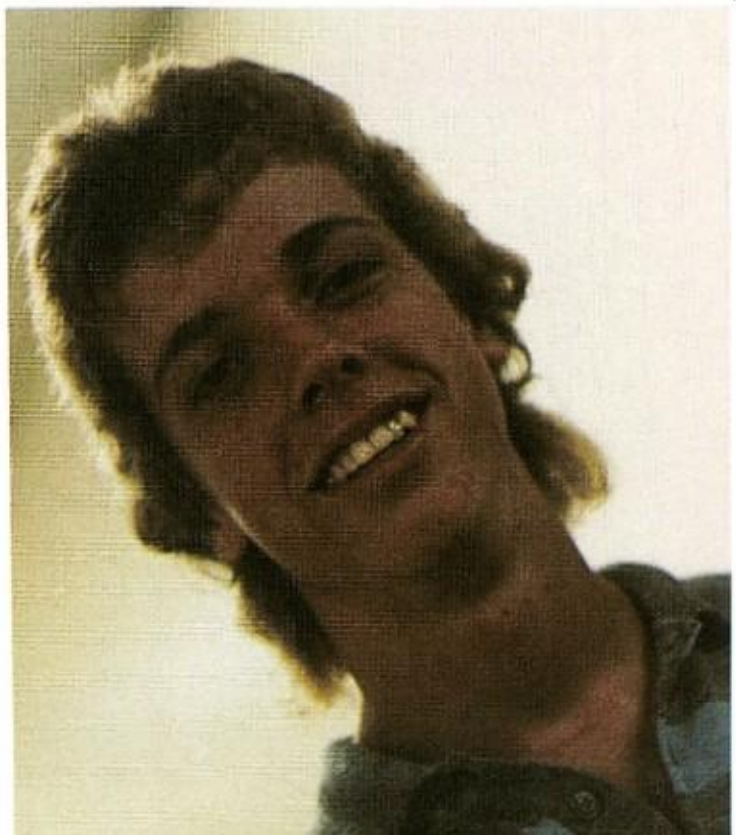






LOBOS ARE COLORFUL





BABY LOBOS . . . HOW MANY

"I'm the greatest!"

"I wanna play football."

"Ya . . . hoo!"

"What's this dumb thing?"

"Waitin' for Kim to call."

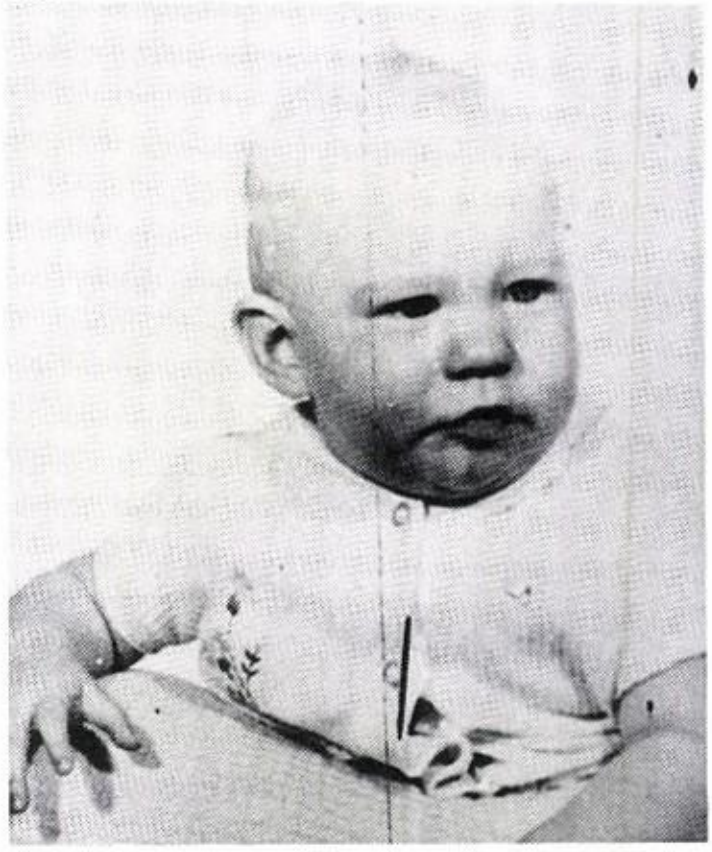
"Hey, I'd better call Kenny."

"I'll check with Teresa."

"What happened?"

"Hey, Baby, wanna disco?"

"Where's that birdy?"



Gimme that ball; I'll slamdunk it!"

DO YOU RECOGNIZE?

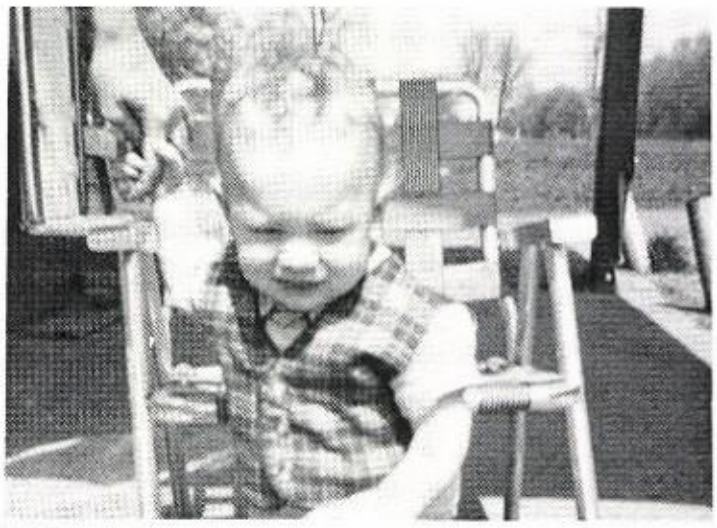
"Polo, anyone?"

"Today, a red trike; tomorrow a red Camaro."

"I can't believe I'm all grown up!"

"America? Where's that?"

"Anyone wanna play ball?"



"Whadda ya mean, run? I can't even walk!"

Baby
Lobos grow up to be Big,
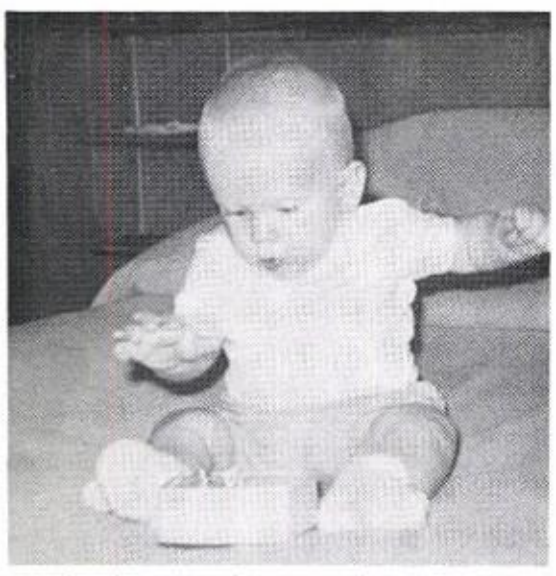
Bad Lobos.

"Hey, you!"

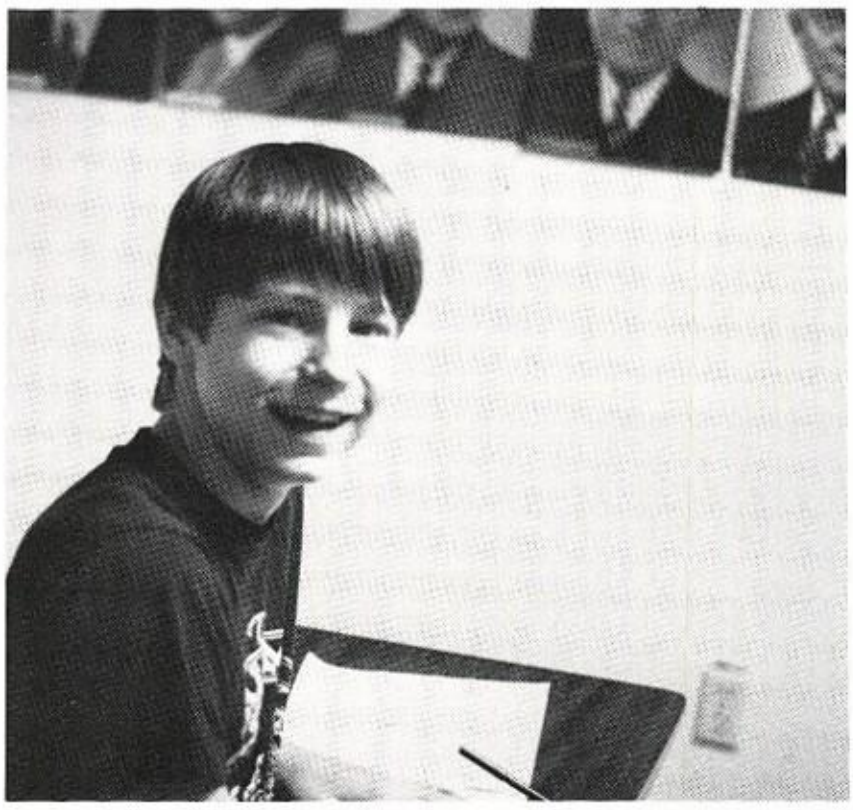


"Oh, boy, what is this?"

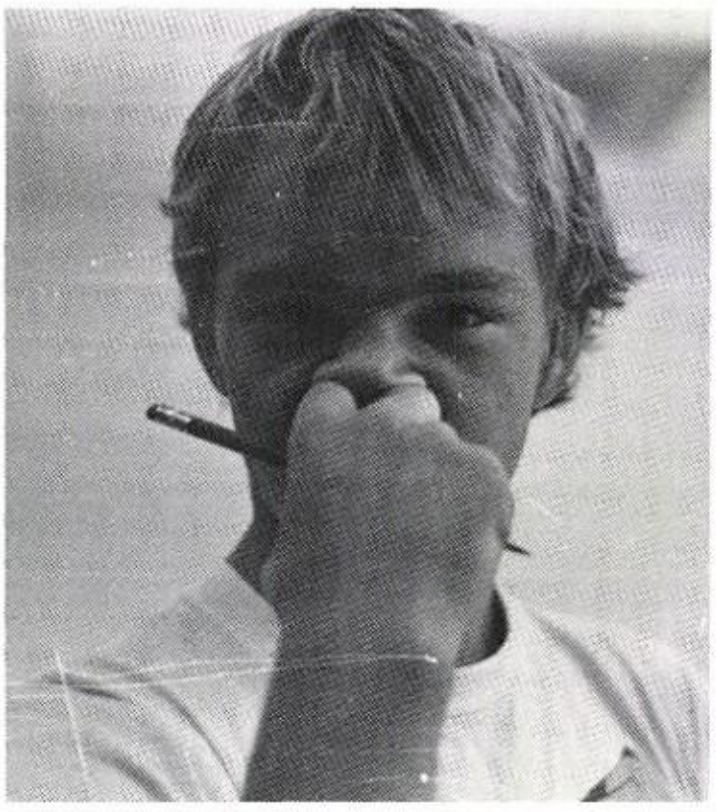
"One more late show."

"Wanna race?"

LOBOS IN THE CLASSROOM

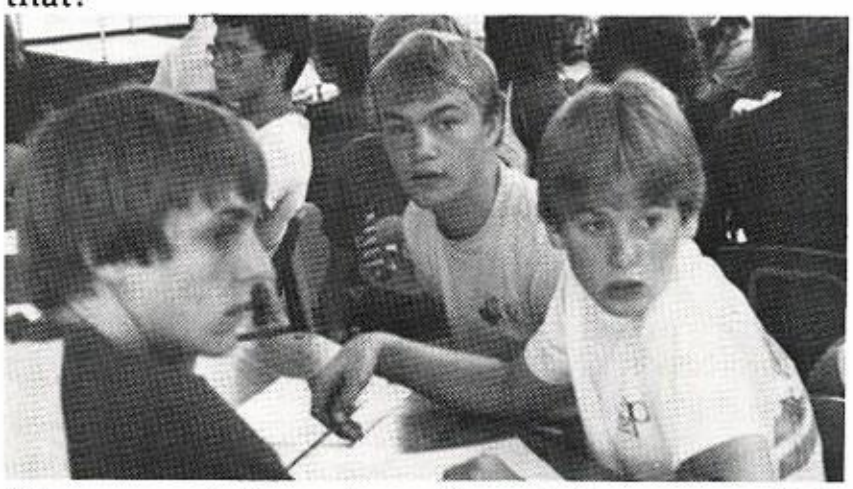


"Aw, Ms. Bryson, are you sure Mr. Truman said that?"



"I'll never figure this one out!"

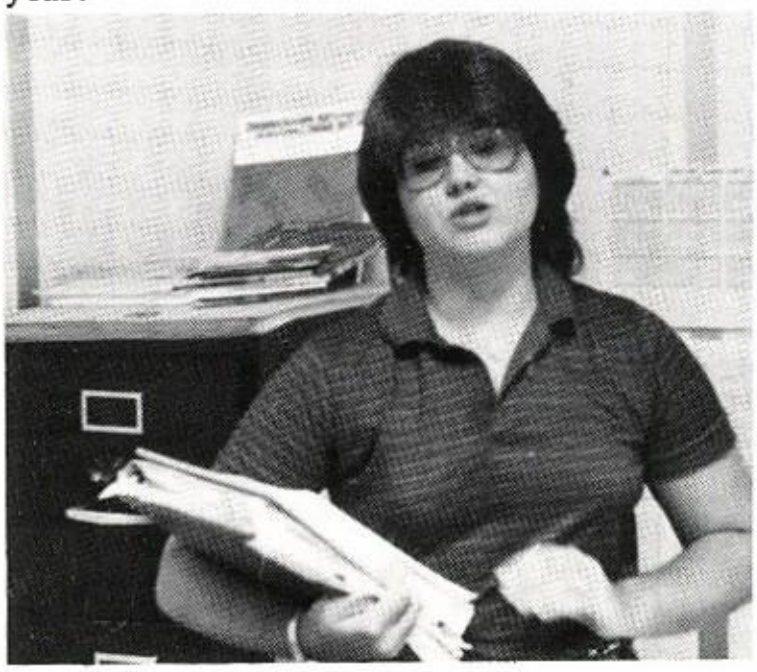
"Let me . . . "



"Can you believe how Jennifer's grown, this year?"

"I don't think I care to go to the dance with you."

"I must be getting a hangnail."

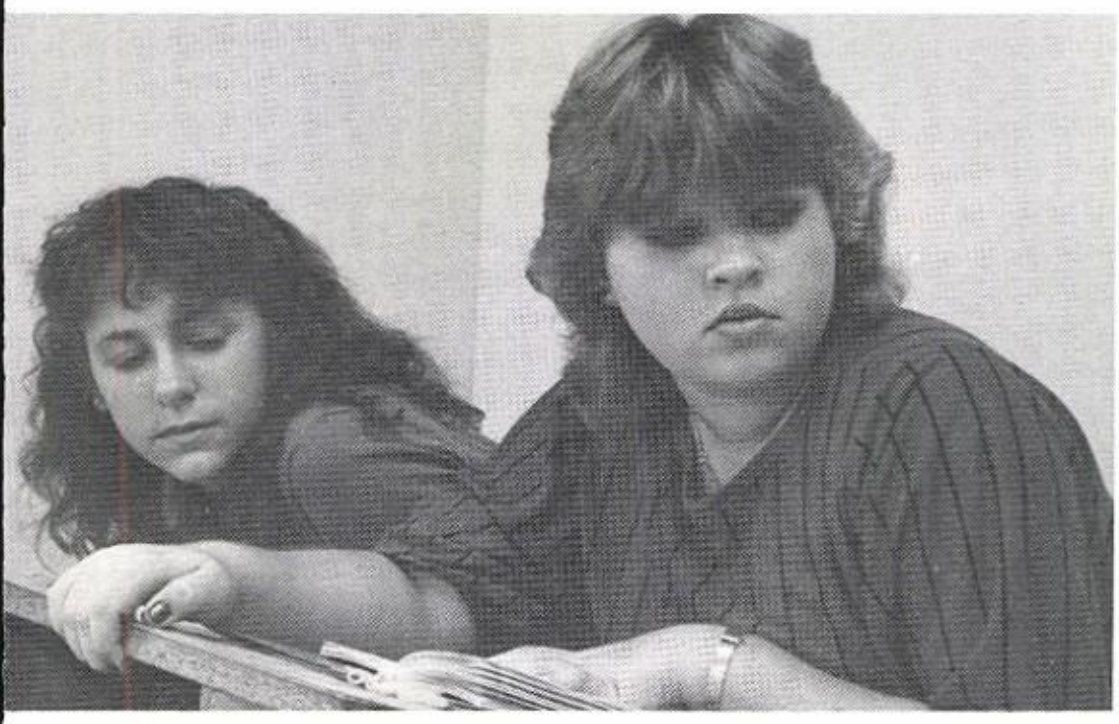


"Shelley . . . "

When Lobos' days in the classroom are past, they are suddenly, miraculously transformed into #1 college students, successful businessmen, and financial tycoons.

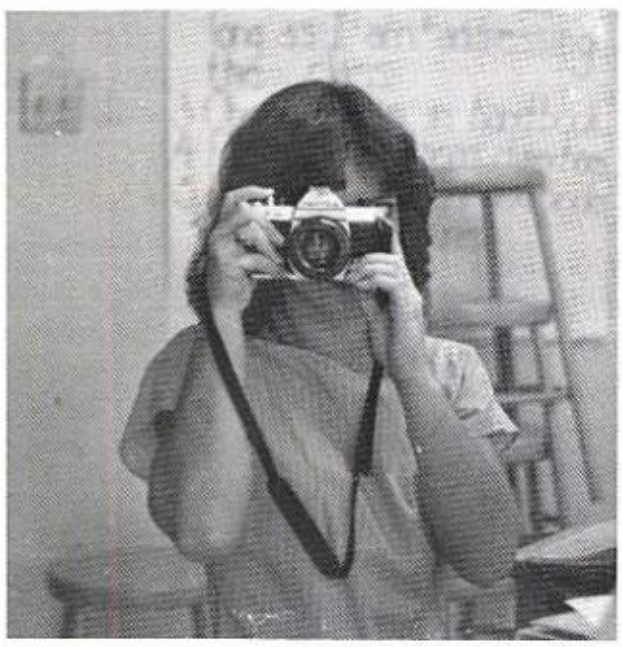
"oh. oh. oh . . . oh!"

"I can't believe everybody knows the answers but me!"



"So, that's how you do it!"

"I'll bet I get an A on this essay!"

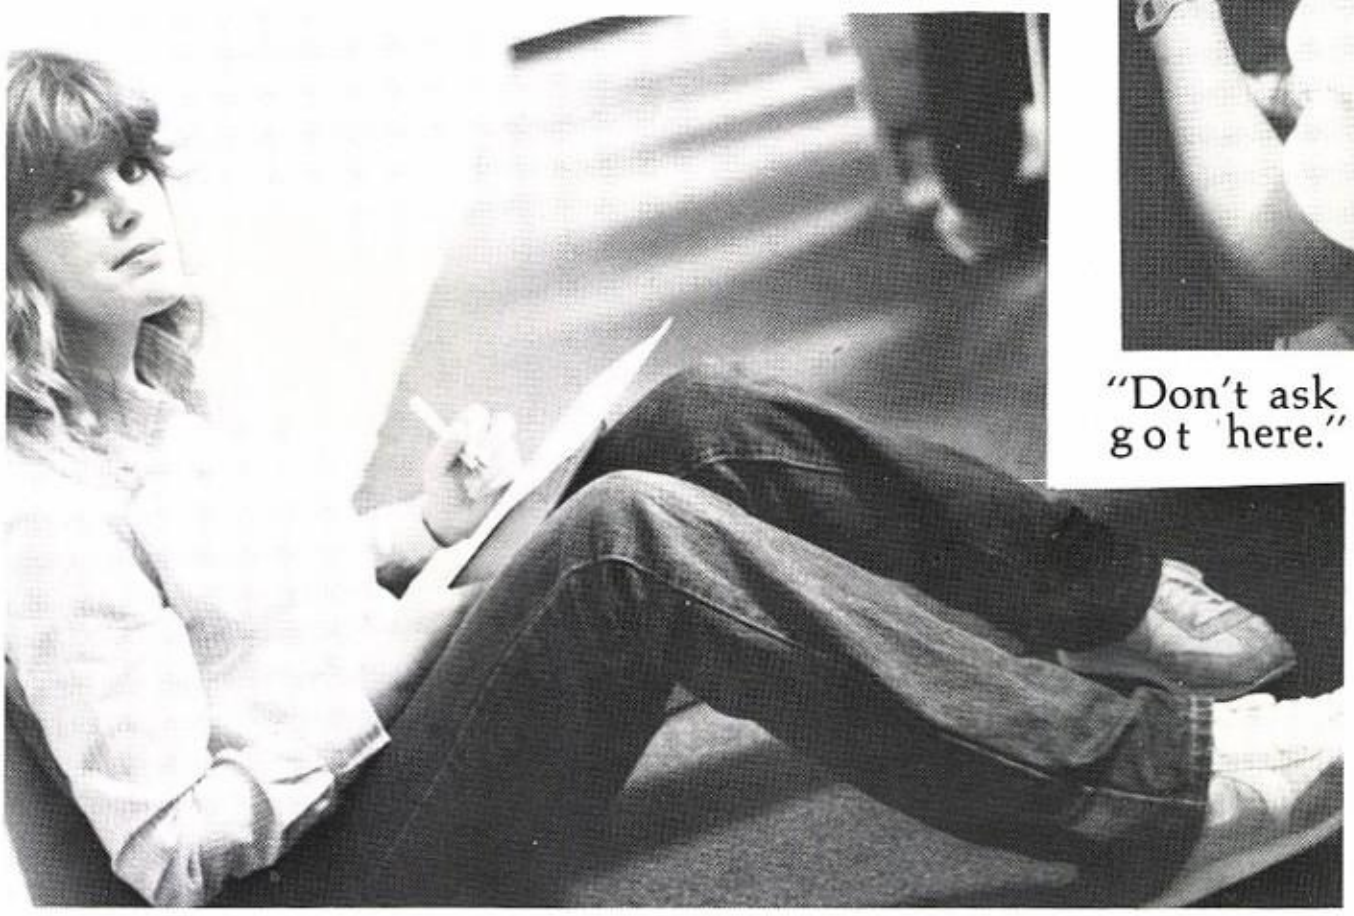


"One . . . two . . . three . . . CHEESE!"

"I've had this stuff before!"

"Don't ask me . . . I just got here."

LOBOS ARE #1

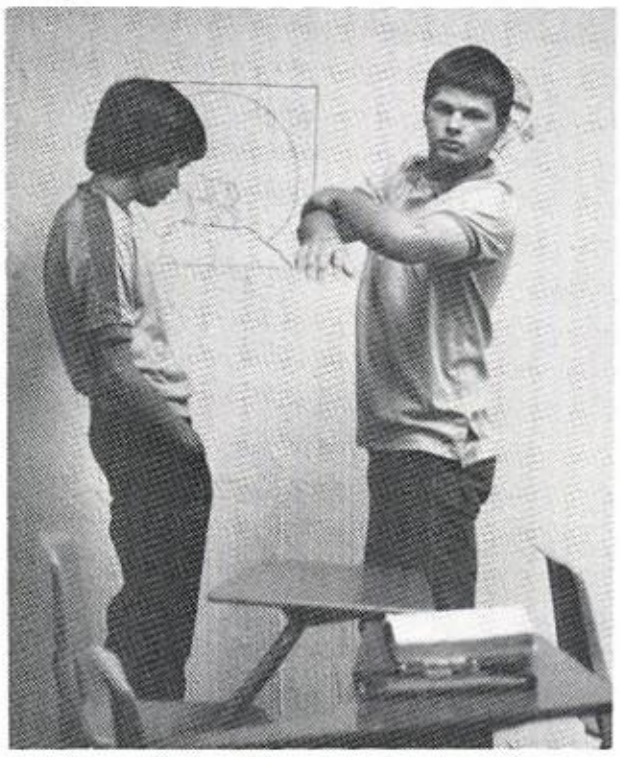


"I can get into this scene."

SO LET'S FACE IT . . . LOBOS ARE

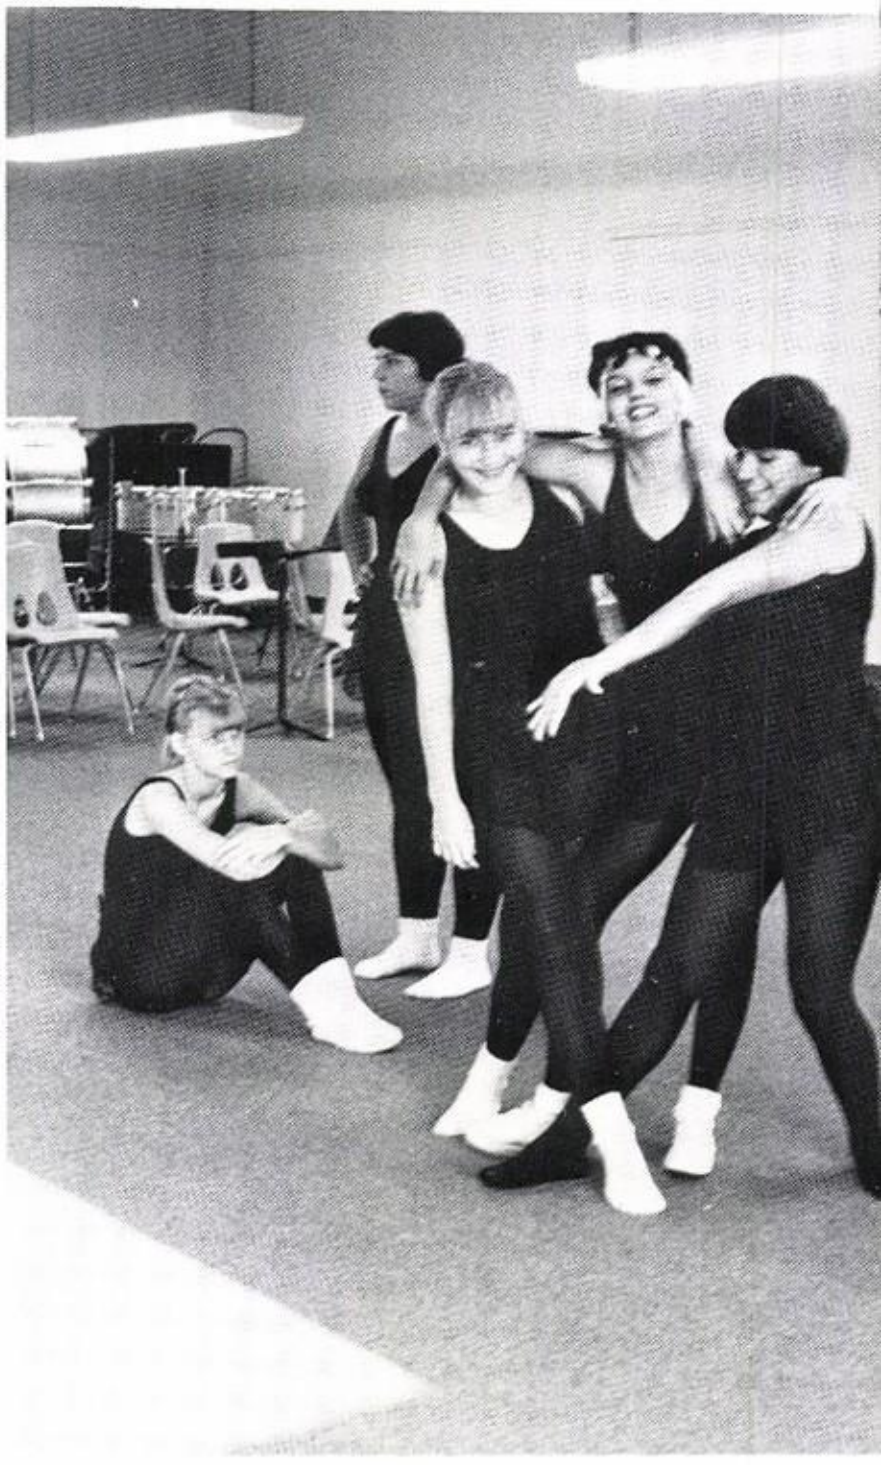
"You ask her" . . . "No, you ask" . . . "No you" . . . "No way!"

"Yes, ma'am, I'll be happy to take my cap off in the hall."

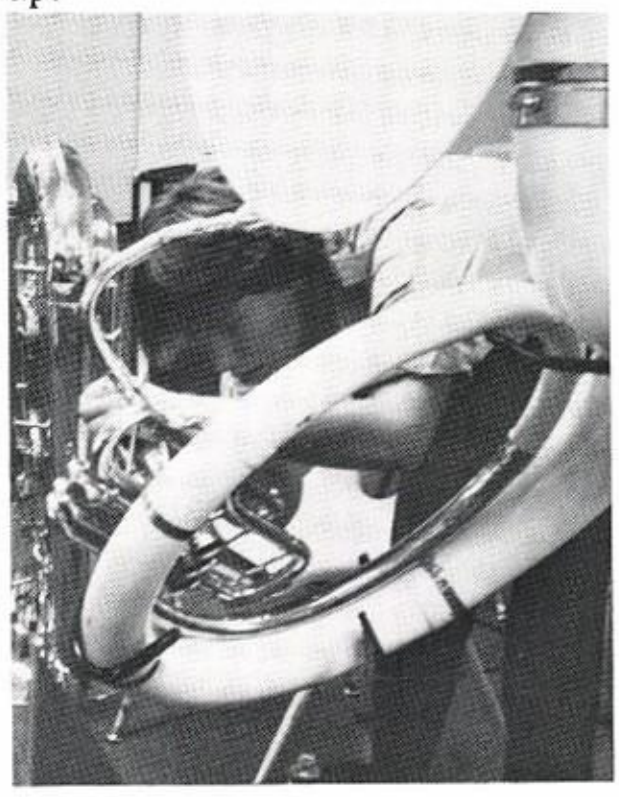


"Now, Bill, you'd better straighten up."

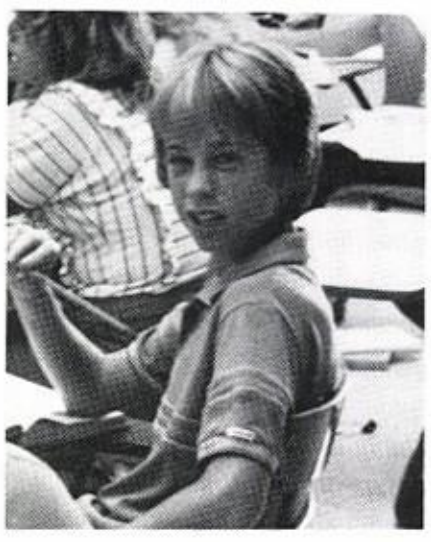
"I'm a PEPPER!"



"Will they ever grow up?"

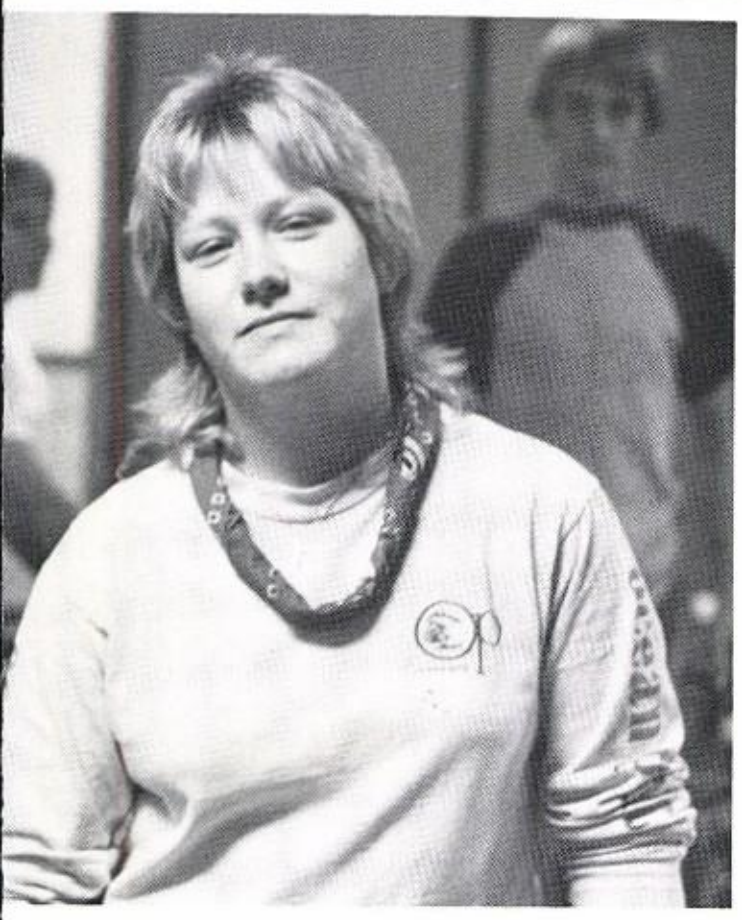


"I dropped my pliers . . ."



"Say whut?"

NOT ALWAYS PERFECT.

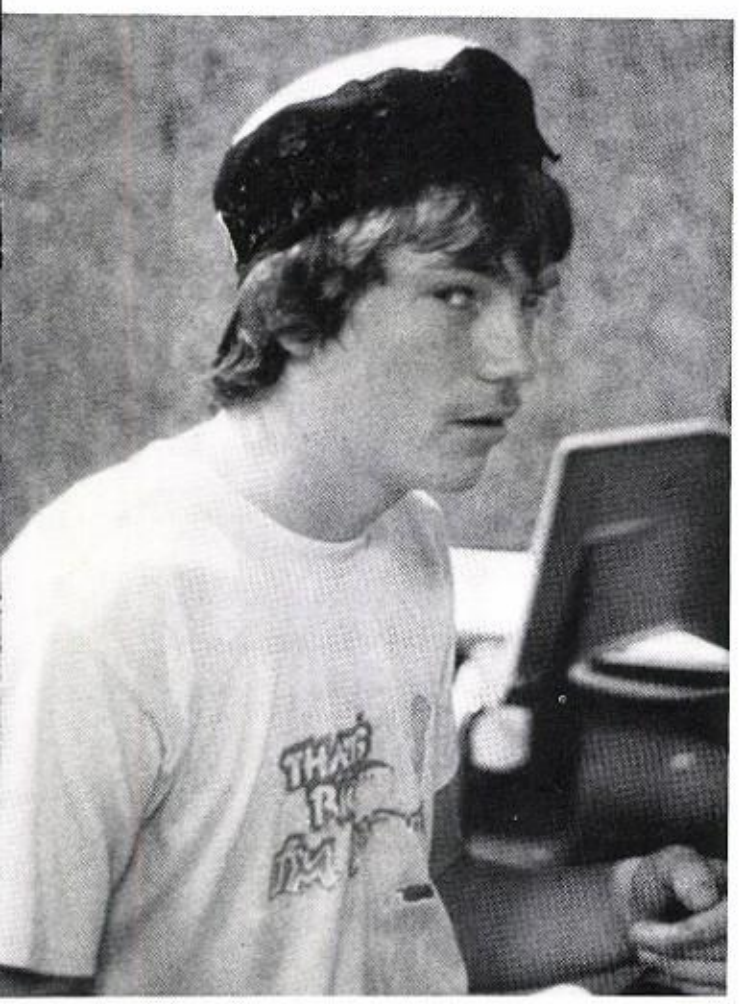


Sure, I did it! So what?"

"Well, girls, it was like this . . . "

"Watch how I do this."

"I'll get that paper in now. I certainly will."



Mr. Scallan, are you positive that was 3 ours D-Hall?"

I just LOVE cameras."

"You mean it's only Tuesday?"

"You're kidding!"

IN MEMORIAM

We, the El Lobo staff of 1983-84 would like to dedicate this annual in remembrance of Mr. Dan Sims- a past member of the Little Elm School System who has epitomized the true Lobo image. Dan served as counselor, principal, teacher, yearbook adviser, bus driver, and curriculum director. Little Elm students will always remember Mr. Sims as a special friend.

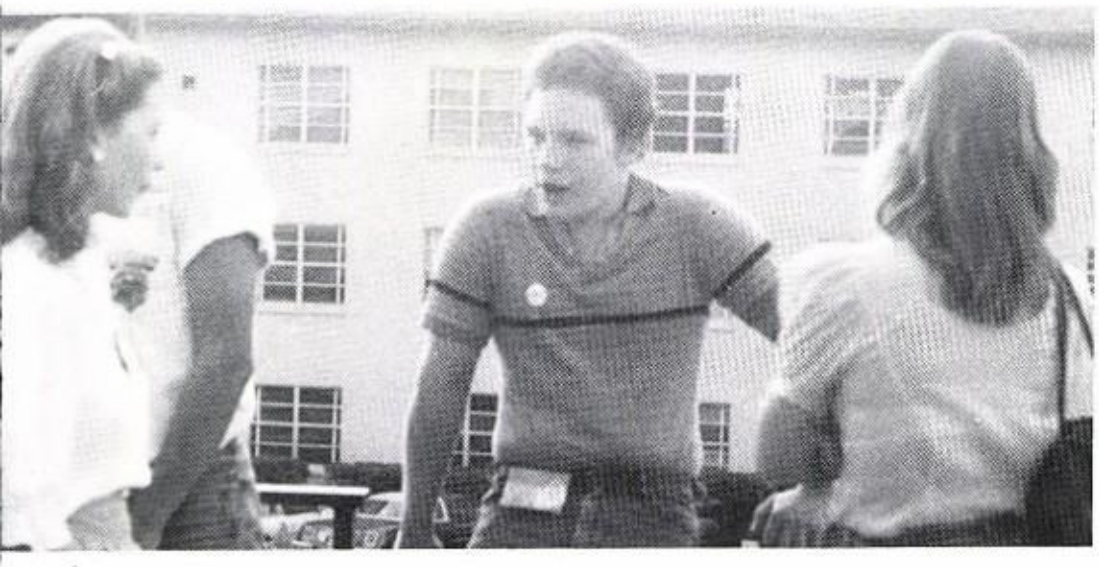
SO WHAT IS THE PERFECT LOBO?



ttle Elm Gifted Students (LEGS)

1. He's intelligent.
2. He has spirit and loyalty.
3. He has poise and beauty.
4. He has talent and creativity.
5. He is dedicated to a job.
6. He offers support to others.
7. He works as a team.
8. All of these and many other qualities make up the Little Elm Lobo. No matter how small or insignificant our contribution may seem, it takes ALL of US to form the image of the Little Elm Lobo.

All for Little Elm, stand up and hol-r!"

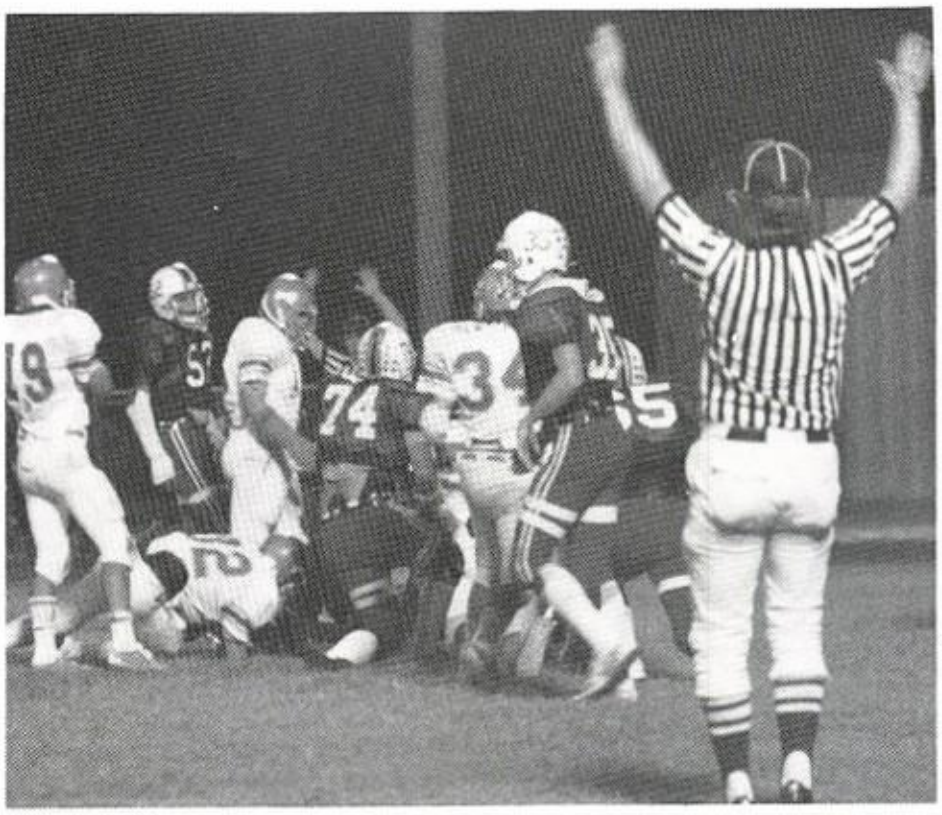
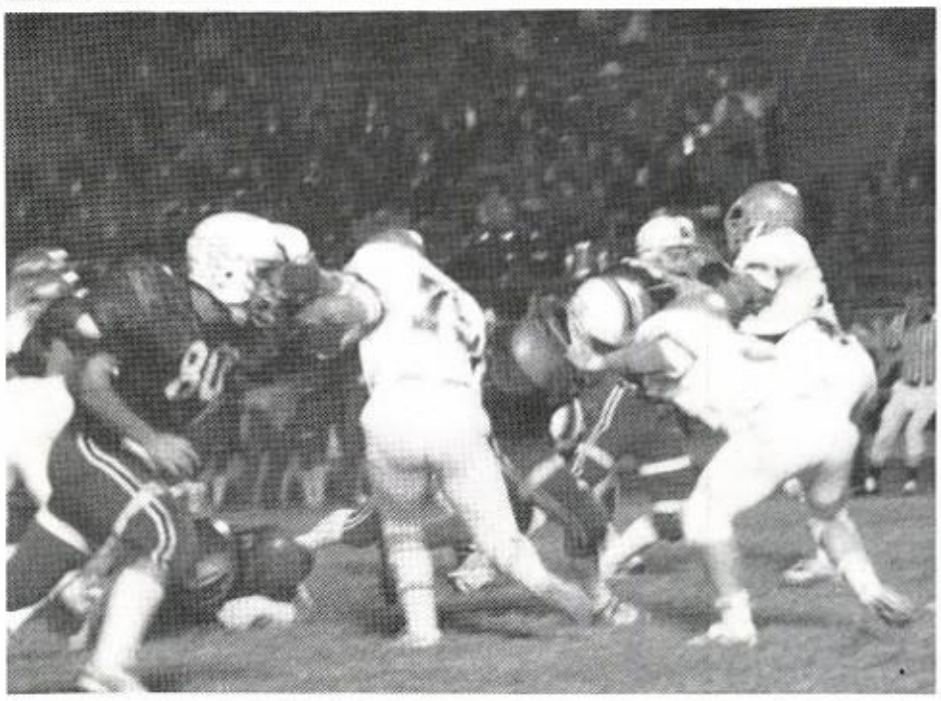
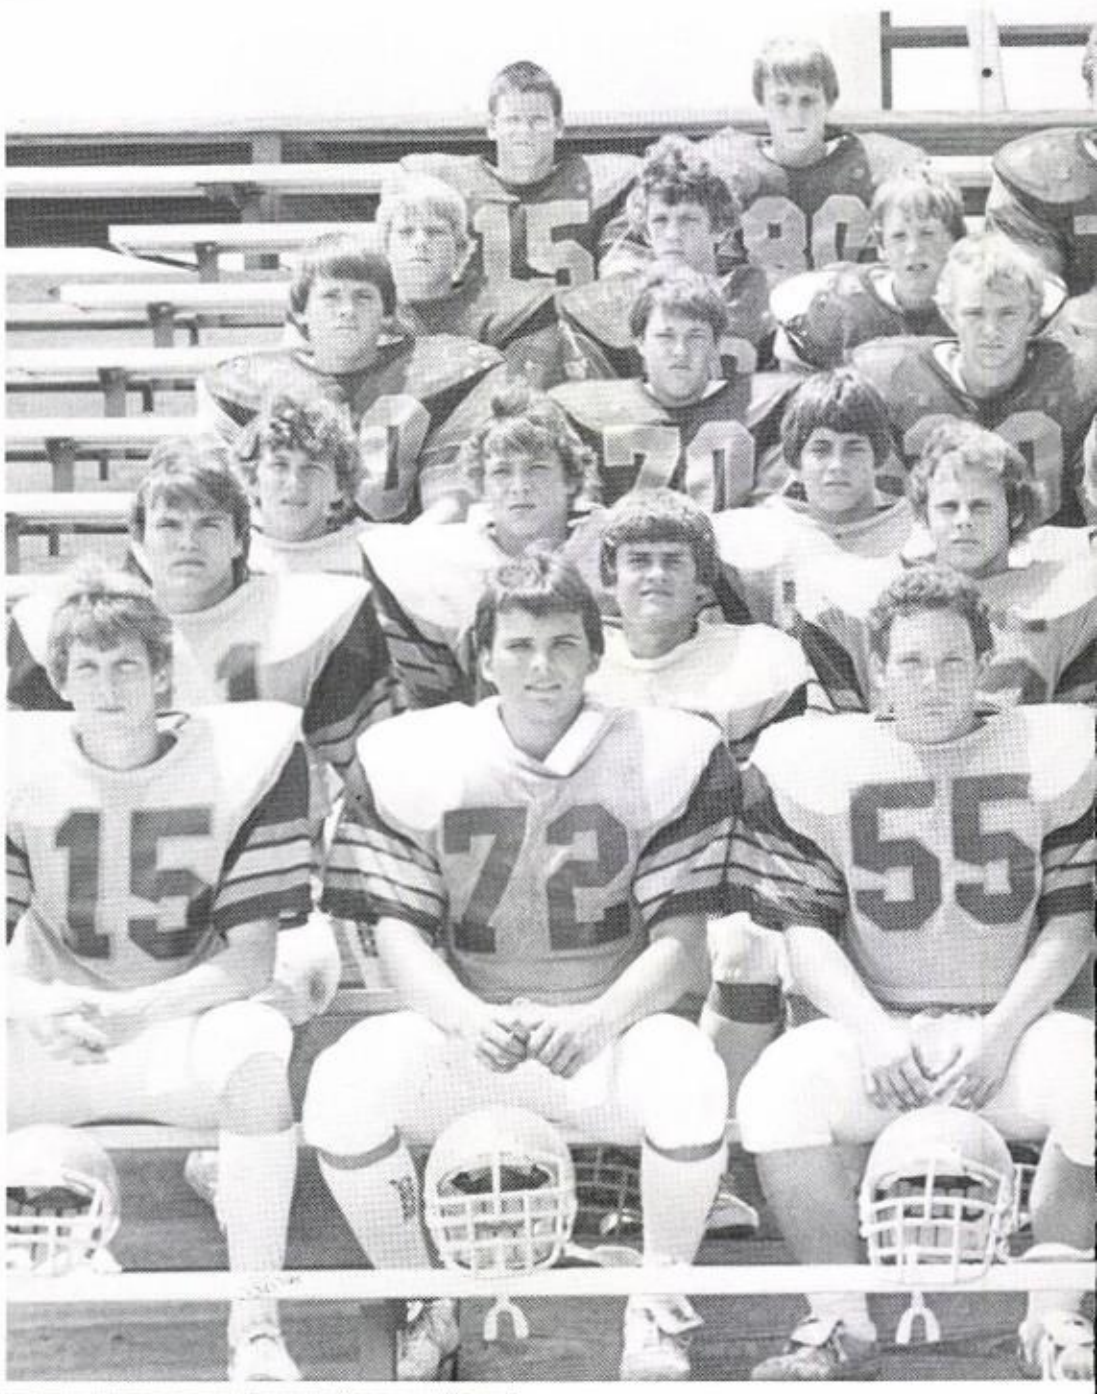
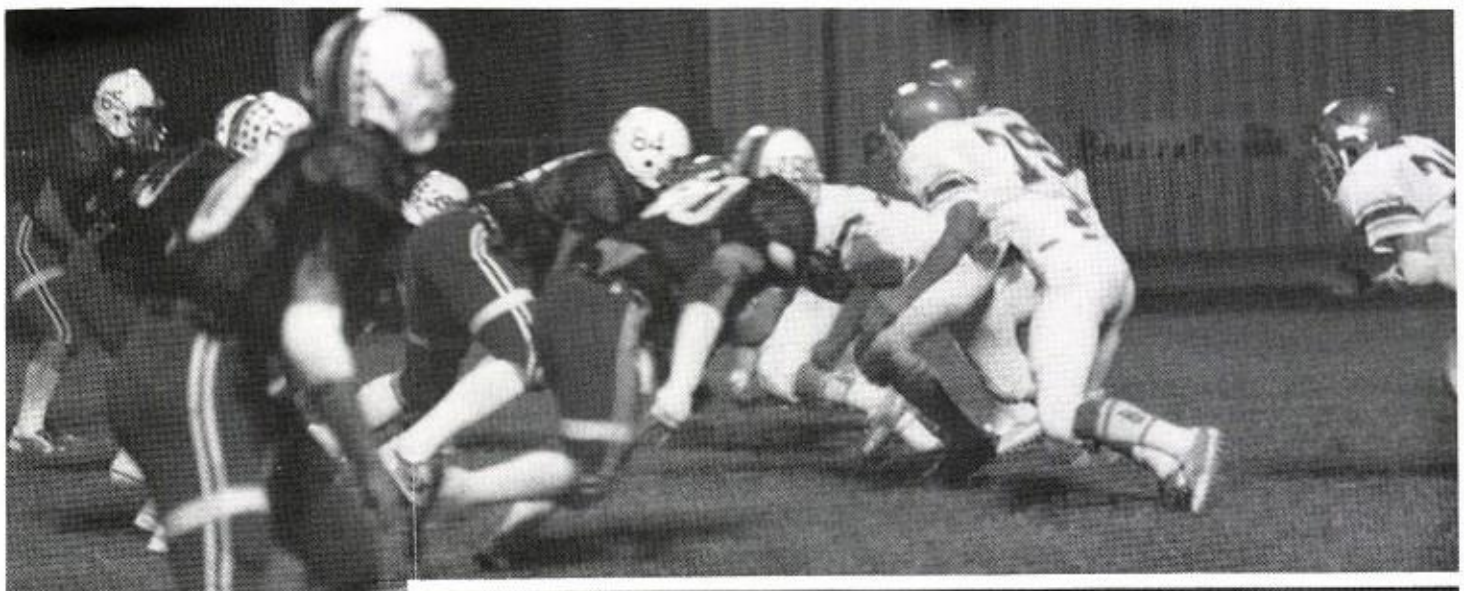
WE LOVE YA BLUE!

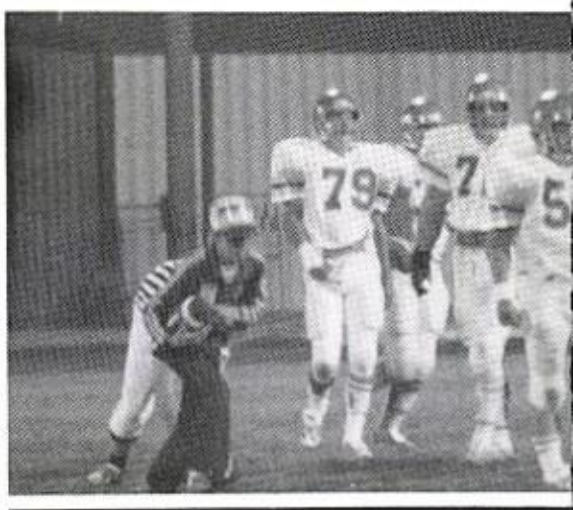


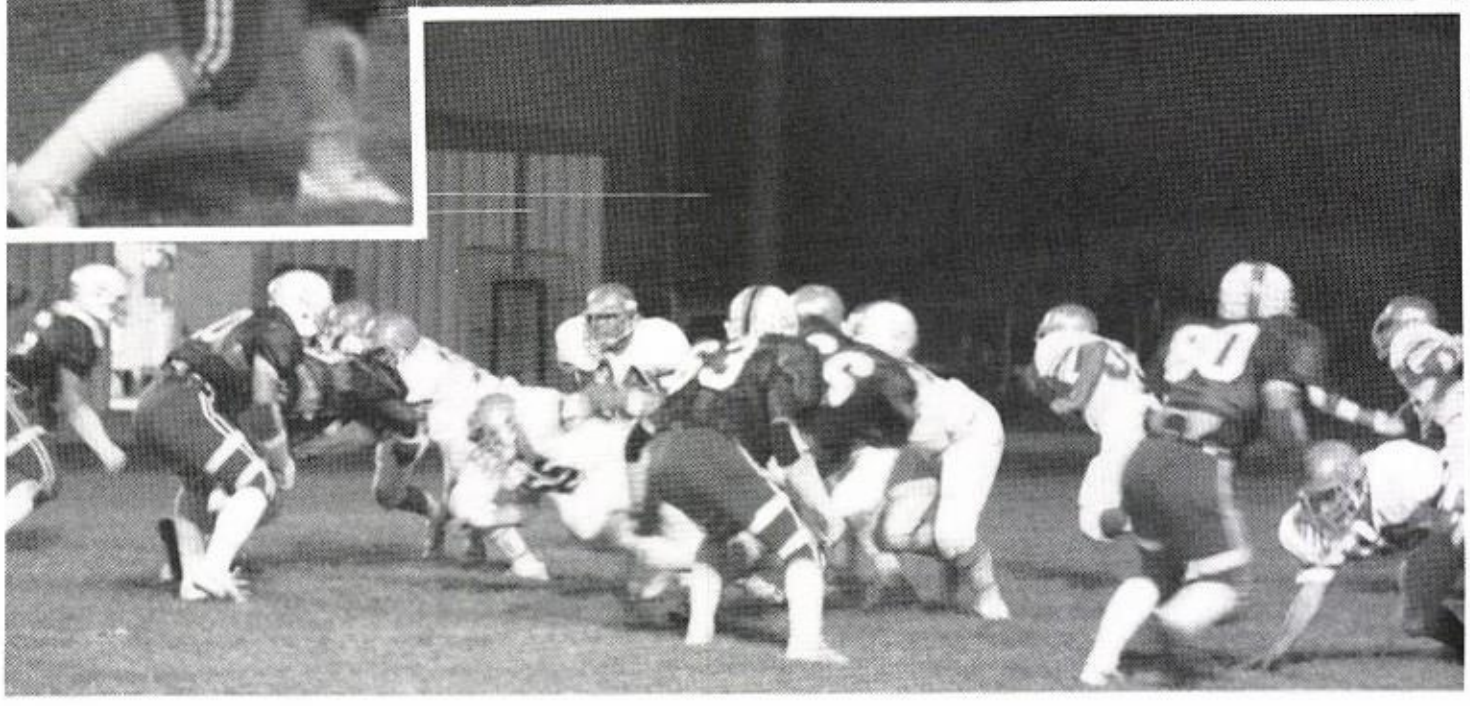


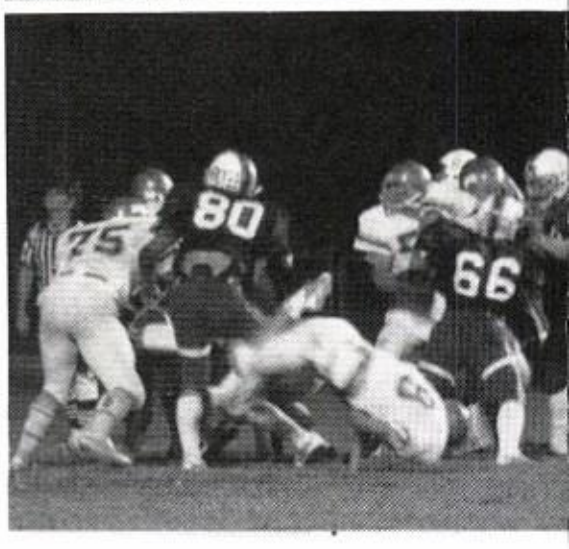


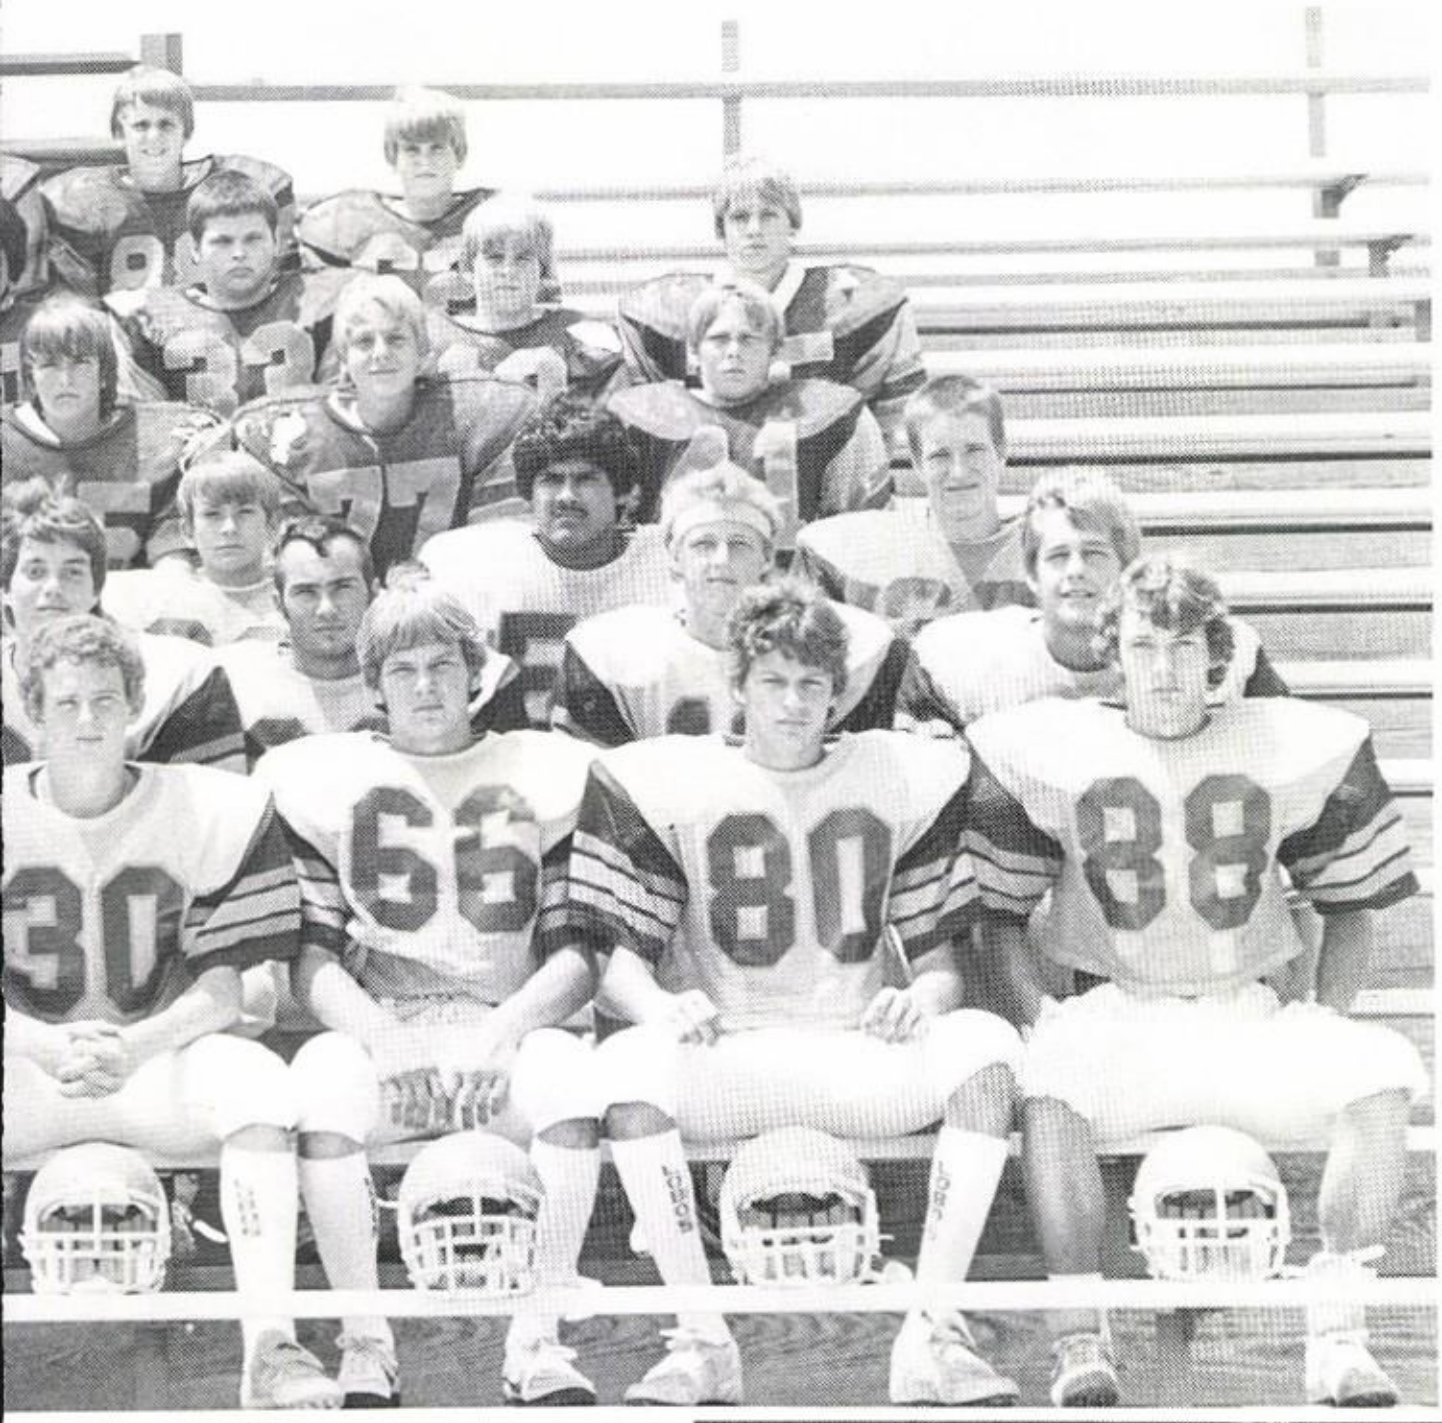


ROW 1: F. Salerno, S. Dockery, R. Hutson, B. Pollard, M. Crocker, E. Brown, K. English; ROW 2: T. Henderson, C. Braswell, J. Lynch, M. Harris, G. Diamond, T. Story, J. Merchant; ROW 3: S. Posey, K. English, J. Curtis, S. Wiley, K. Kruger









In the face of total disaster, the Lobo spirit shines through. In competition with the Dreaded Bearcats, the Lobos never gave up. Even when the scoreboard showed a ridiculous 70-12, the Lobos still played their hearts out, scoring more points against their defensive unit than any other team in the district.

"REMEMBER"
By Scott Chromic and Dana Kee

Youthful cries and tearstained eyes,
Can you follow the daydream?
Can you remember when you were young,
When fairytails had a meaning?
When life was free and love was new,
Can you follow the daydream?

Don't you remember, you once were a child,
But now your eyes see through me.
The hands of time have touched your face,
you can't fool me, oh no!

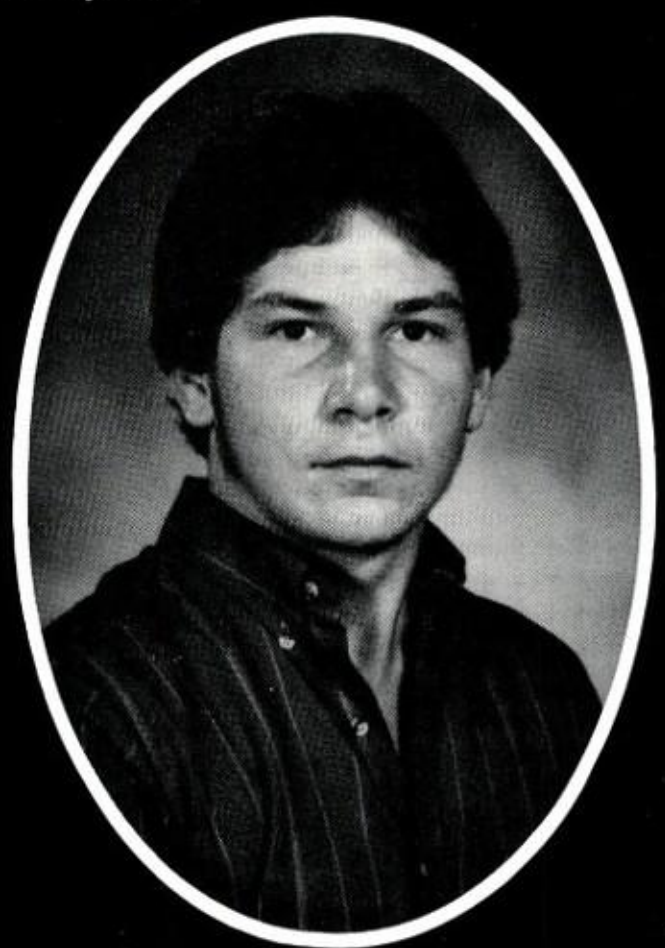
You've found true love,
You've found the extra space to grow —
oh-we all need to grow.

It's really talkin' to me,
the feeling goes right through me.
When I see the crazy things we've done,
The memories crowd my senses.
you know my one defense is,
The thought of all the crazy things we've done.

Remember ..... Remember .....

Remember, we've got many things to come.
The life you're leading is all brand new;
more freedom comes each day, and yet memories still shine through.
The past will guide you in every way.
But now you're out here on your own, and if the road looks bare,
Go find somebody to hold you close, go find someone who will really care,

Oh-who will really care.



Go Lobos!
